The Glen House

Opened in September 2018, The Glen House has historic roots in New Hampshire's White Mountains. The new 68-room hotel is the fifth generation of The Glen House and was built near the site of the original hotel, a landmark that opened in 1852 as tourists began to flock to the summit of Mt. Washington. The new, eco-friendly Glen House is the ideal base camp for those who love the outdoors and adventures in the White Mountains. Guests will enjoy fine accommodations, an indoor saltwater pool, an award-winning tavern, and fantastic meals at The Notch Grille restaurant—all while being just steps away from the scenic trails at Great Glen Trails Outdoor Center.

Book your stay at TheGlenHouse.com or call 603-466-3420.

"Fantastic day on the water!"

"Our family had a great time kayaking on the Androscoggin River. It was very scenic and we had the river all to ourselves. Wildlife was everywhere and we saw moose, red tail hawks, blue herons, turtles and even five bald eagles! There were a few small but fun rapids—nothing too difficult. Our guide, Steve, was great—very knowledgeable and fun!"

Enjoy biking and hiking on well-marked carriage roads and singletrack trails with stunning views of the northern Presidential Mountains. When the weather turns hot, join us on the water for a leisurely guided kayak trip on the area's most scenic rivers, or a day of thrilling whitewater instruction.
